(the common-sense exemption) which states that CEQA applies only to projects which have the potential for causing a significant effect on the environment.

5. Reason why project was exempt: The project consists of a general plan consistency determination for property disposition only, consistent with the General Plan, and no development is proposed. It can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the general plan consistency determination may have a significant effect on the environment as the project will not involve nor approve any physical change nor any reasonably foreseeable future change.
